GINGER LADUKE

This was such a special win because the Golliher Family ( Jerry, Sue & ZeAnn) are some of our longest, dearest friends. I grew up riding Golliher-raised horses, so to win this at their production was pretty dang awesome. There's such a warm family atmosphere and hospitality at any event that you attend at Golliher arena.

I ended up 5th in the first round and I came home that night to get my kids to bed and be with my family. I really tried not to concentrate on the average rather go and try to place in the round again. I actually lost my stirrup going around first and did not get it back the entire run. He really took care of himself and me. He ended up 2nd in the 2nd go and it was just enough to get the average.

"From the day he was born, Henry was special to my family. So for me to get to run barrels on him is just a bonus. He is truly loved by us all."

HENRY was the first colt that my husband and I raised together. I was there when he was born. My son Tel and I halter broke him. He honestly is like a family member. My brother-in-law, Curt put the first few rides on him and then Will took him over. We ranch, so he has had a lot of outside miles under his belt. He is actually a really cool head horse too. I didn't start him on the barrels until late last fall. Early this spring people would ask if I had a Futurity colt and I would say 'well I have a 5 year old but I don't know if he's a futurity colt' lol...just because he was pretty far behind. I wasn't really planning on entering futurities on him, but at the last minute we put him in the Dash and Dance and had a little luck and placed 6th in the average. So we went ahead and late entered him in a few close ones.

What was your game plan going into this futurity? Well I had been tipping barrels to make some good runs and my husband, Will told me it was time to start riding Henry like a rodeo horse instead of a colt and see what happens.

What are your goals for the rest of the year? Henry will run at the NWBRA finals October 7-9 then we will head to Bowman ND for the Badlands WPRA Divisional tour finals at the end of October. After we ship our calves, I'll give them a few months off.

Giving thanks... My husband, Will and kids, Tel and Lila and my parents, Dave and Eva Edwards. I'm so lucky to have really great family helping me so I'm able to do this.

Ginger

DEANN MCNAMEE & COLOUR ME FAST

Continue CSR...

DEANN MCNAMEE

Expectations or game plan? "I didn't have any expectations going into this futurity. I just came from Parker-Wood Memorial and Colour Me Fast (Pistol) made two solid runs but he just didn't fire there. I haven't had to do any maintenance with him all year but I had a horse chiropractor work on him earlier that week and gave him the rest of the week off. I guess that paid off as he was back to his old self. Pistol and I had placed in the top 4 at a few futurities this year, but this was our first win at CSR. It was a great way to end our futurity year!"

"The first run was pretty emotional for me. Pistol came out and ran a 16.8 on a standard pattern. I had never run a 16 on a standard pattern and he was at the bottom of the ground. It just showed how well the Copper Spring Ranch crew did on the ground. You could tell they put a lot of time and effort into getting it just right. I don't think it mattered if you were on the top or bottom of the ground. The second run he fired even harder and slipped a little on first and we had to be very patient to get around it and he still ran a 17.0. It was a very close race between Sue Smith and Dashes Centerfold who ran a 17.1 and a 16.8 the second day as well. What an amazing team!"

"I would like to send a big thank you to Lisa Anderson and her entire crew at Copper Spring Ranch for putting on an amazing futurity. They all went above and beyond with hospitality, efficiency, and friendliness. In addition, the prizes and payouts were amazing. They really produced a "First Class" event with a "First Class" crew. Fun was had by all!"

PISTOL... "My husband, Mark bought him for our 5th Anniversary at the Myers Sale when he was 2 yrs old. He was a lot of horse from the beginning so we took our time and rode him a lot outside and then showed him the barrels, poles and roping and he took to it all. It was almost like he was born to do it. His maternal dam, Fleeting French Girl, won a lot at the barrel futurities herself. We can only ride him in a snaffle even when we rope on him or run barrels at a high rate of speed because he stays so soft. Naturally, he has always had this huge acceleration between barrels. He can run by a barrel a little bit and still clock because he runs so hard in between the barrels, especially running to first barrel. When he's ready to go you just don't hold him back, you just let him run!"

What sets your style of training apart from others? "We don't do this for a living as we have other full-time careers but we really enjoy riding and training our horses and learning every day. My husband, Mark breaks the colts we have and gets them going really well outside, on the sack and in the roping and then I'm the finder of the feast and take them when they are 3 or 4 and put them on the barrels/poles, etc. Our daughter, Jordyn, is a freshman in High School and rodeos as well. She is a great jockey and helps us as well with all of our horses. We just try to do as much as we can on our horses from ranch riding, roping, barrels and poles and just try to pick ideas up from other trainers in the different events."

Goals and Prospects? "We don't have any futurity horses for 2017 but we do have a couple of prospects for 2018. For Pistol, we plan on giving him a couple months off as he has been run a lot this year and then start entering some rodeos to get him seasoned. Also, I ran another futurity horse this year, Sadies Lovein It (Cash), and he did well mom and stepdad, Linda and Casey Hunter, for their support as well. I would also like to thank my aunt & uncle, Dana & Kenny Ingalls, who provide us with great feed, Common Sense Feed along with Equi-Sure. We also have a great farrier, Quint Gonzales, and veterinarian, Dr. Doug Brunk and equine chiropractor, Terri Kissack. It takes a whole team to keep the horses feeling good."

JESSICA ROUTIER & FIERY MISS WEST

JESSICA ROUTIER

FIERY MISS WEST made two very nice barrel runs at the Grid Iron futurity. We won the first round with a 14.33, which also won the open that day (we carried our time over). The second day we came back and ran a 14.27, which placed second in the round and secured the average win. Sired by Westergren Quarter Horse's Firewater Frenchman, Missy was eligible for the breeder's futurity so we ended up winning both the open and breeders futurities. We also placed 4th in the pole bending futurity, which earned Missy the title of All-Around Futurity Horse for the weekend.

In addition, the Grid Iron, along with the Kohr Futurity, Dash N Dance Futurity, and 5 State Breeders Futurity, give a beautiful Trifecta buckle to the horse who wins the most at all of those events combined, and we were honored to receive that award as well!

We would like to thank Bobbi Jo Williams and her crew for putting on a great event. Everyone at the Grid Iron is always very accommodating, and the payout and prizes were awesome!

TAYLOR MINIAT-HILDRETH

I really try not to set expectations at each futurity and try to take my runs one barrel at a time. The calmer and collected I stay, my horses seem to as well--so I guess that was my game plan. I knew she was every bit capable of winning; I just had to do my part and help her to get there.

My first run she seemed to struggle a little since she was last on the ground; it was smooth but each barrel had some time wasted getting out of the barrels. On the second run she was top of the ground--ran and turned harder than the first day and really felt amazing. The short go I felt was about like the second day--she ran really hard and stayed very correct and honest into her turns. I honestly cannot even describe my excitement after this win. I couldn't believe it really. With the Potters Ranch incentive, Future Fortunes money, and money from the pot she won around $18,000.

I think the Thars did an outstanding job of producing this futurity, that arena is really hard to keep the ground good and they really did their best to keep it safe for all the horses. The awards were great, hospitality was outstanding, and the professionalism was really evident in how they ran the race. I will make sure to be back in years to come!

ABOUT FIONA

I have known Shake Ems Hayday "Fiona" since the day she was born and she has always been a little Diva! My good friend Caytlyn Dee (current owner/ partner on the mare) bred her mama to Dinero in hopes of a little buckskin filly and we were just so excited that morning she was born! Emilio Vega put 45 rides on her as a 2 yr old and from there I have done most of the riding along with some help from my husband (he ropes on her some as well). She definitely hasn't been the easiest horse and is very set in her ways; she loves winning though and loves running barrels.

Most of my riding and conditioning is done on our ranch. I do a lot of hills and pasture riding to keep her in shape; I really don't work her often on the pattern. Prior to and the weekend of this futurity she was worked on by a Pro Scope machine (Darren Barton worked on her.) I also use Back on Track blankets and CuHorse wraps.

GOALS

Since the Fizz Bomb we went to Parker Wood Memorial and the Copper Springs futuritystruggled with some soreness at both. Our next race will be the WPRA Finals at the end of October. Until then she will get some good rest and time in the pasture so she feels her best. After that I don't really know what the plan is; possibly the JB Quarter Horses futurity and the BFA derby. My goal would be to have at least one more weekend of success since the last two didn't really go our way. Fiona really deserves to end her futurity year with a bang--she's a tremendous athlete with so much heart and grit...

Unfortunately I do not have any Colts for the 2017 futurities (super bummed) but I do have two for 2018 so I will just spend that time getting them ready, maybe hitting some derbies and roping some.

THANK YOU

I have to give a huge shout out to ExcelEQ, my sponsor--their product is outstanding and my horses love it! Also a huge thank you to my vet and dear friend Jill Eyles; and thanks to Les Frost for always helping my horses even if it's on days off or crazy hours; my husband and Farrier, Coy Hildreth for making sure my horses feet are always in great shape and for being the most supportive person I could ever ask for; Sam Young for his work on my horses; my friends Hilary and Connie Van Gerpen, Cami Bauer, Audri Hicks, and Felesha Snider for helping me with Jett at all the races--traveling with a one year old gets hard sometimes and I could never do it without you all! Also my mom, dad, sister and in-laws for helping with Jett on the weekends I can't take him.
