HEIDI GUNDERSON

I was very hopeful coming into the weekend. "Makin" felt great and the last time I ran him at this arena he had won the 2nd go of the June futurity posting the fastest time of the weekend. I knew if he could run like that we would have a good chance of winning some money. I ran in the Friday night open and hit the first barrel on the backside with a rider error, so I knew I was going to have to send him and ride him through his turns. The first go, I sent him to the first and he swallowed it; I knew after that I had it! He comes back so hard on the backside of the first, I know if I ride him right and get him past it we are good to go. He won the first go Saturday and I carried my time over to the Saturday open with a time of 15.039. He was 6th in the 1D with over 300 entries including the American Qualifiers from Saturday night. It was exciting to me to see him be able to clock at that level of competition. The 10th place American Qualifier was a 15.162, so I was super happy with the way he worked and clocked on Saturday.

I didn't sleep a lot on Saturday night; I kept playing my run through my mind. I knew if I could keep the barrels up we had a good chance of winning the futurity. On Sunday, I overrode him playing it safe; he clocked a slower time, but it was enough for 2nd in the go and to win the average of the futurity. It felt so good to have him earn that honor.

TAKIN ON A STORM is sired by Cartel Dancer and out of Highest Straw/Texas High Dasher

"Makin" as we call him is sired by Cartel Dancer, who is owned by Tom Maher of Pierre, SD. TAKIN ON A STORM was bred by Winner's Circle Ranch, Jim and Brenda Hughes of Osakis, MN. Jim and Brenda have bred a handful of winners in the barrel pen, including RC Back in Black that brought Jane Melby to the NFR and won 3 rounds in Vegas. I jumped at the chance to own a colt out of their program. Brenda told me that when she bred Highest Straw to Cartel Dancer, she wanted the run of Corona Cartel and the turn of the Texas High Dasher's. Well she got it! That is exactly what Makin is.

The opportunity to own him came early on in his 2 year old year. A friend of mine had bought him from Brenda and Jim. I had a barrel horse that she wanted to buy. When I asked her if she had any colts she would like to trade, she mentioned Makin. She told me he was one of the Winner's Circle colts and I told her 'done deal'. He had been lightly started under saddle; he is a late colt with a late June birthday, so when I got him in July he had just turned 2. We got on him a couple times in the round pen and turned him out till fall to allow him to grow up some. He was a spook (still is) and when we got on him in the fall he was a handful. The spring of his 3-year-old year my goal was to just be able to ride him outside the arena safely! My husband Mark has had to "top him off" several times for me-lol! I remember riding down the road and having to scratch my arm from a mosquito but not daring to move on top of him! I started hauling him to rodeos and let him stand tied to the trailer many weekends to acclimate him to the atmosphere and get him used to more people, sights, and sounds. It worked; he started to get less jumpy about everything and anything around him. His 3-year-old summer I started him on the barrels; he was a natural. I had sold my rodeo horse that summer in May, so my goal all along was to camp out on this colt and have him ready to go as a 4 year old. That's what I did. I rode him everyday, hauled him everywhere we went, and by mid summer decided I could take him and exhibition him.

His first barrel race I entered him in was March of 2017 in Verndale, MN. His first weekend ever entered, he clocked the fastest time of any horse I have ever run in that arena and ran 2nd in the 1D. If I didn't know by then, I now knew he was going to be something very special!

HURDLES, QUIRKS AND/OR SETBACKS...

He was/is a very spooky horse, he never was a buckner, but I don't think I ever rode a horse that can spook from one side of the road to the other side of the road in the blink of an eye like this one. I have not ever come off him, but there have been some close calls! Getting him used to things around him was the biggest challenge. Hauling to the rodeos helped him a lot! I also have had Mark rope the sled off him several times, so he could get used to ropes and things up over his head.

Mark does all of the colt training at our house. He starts all our own and rides outside training horses as well. Makin had been lightly started when we got him. Mark rode him until he was safe for me, then I took it mostly from that point forward. There have been times when I have definitely asked him for a tune-up. This is a perk of being married to your colt starter--lol. It is a joint effort. We do a lot of everything with our colts. My strategy with them is to expose them to as much as I can. Since Mark works for a rodeo contractor, I have a great opportunity to bring my colts along to the rodeos and use them to run down cattle and shag calves from the arena. I like to rope off my colts, even if not live cattle, I have Mark rope the roping dummy on all of them. Learning how to deal with pressure in all sorts of environments gives them a better mind to be able to handle the high stakes pressure of being a barrel horse.

I don't work the barrels on him a lot; I keep him in shape just riding him, occasionally putting him in the round pen. There are some drills I do, but with him, he does them so perfect, I don't see the need to keep repeating things he has down. If I see a need for something, then we will work on that. He picks up on things fast, so there isn't really a need to work him often on the same thing.

Currently I am running him in a short shank 3 piece Carolina bit. It's one of my favorites in a light mouthed colt. I ride him during the week in several different Dutton bits. I have a G bar G saddle that I use on him. He is on Rein and Saddle-Well Being feed provided by All Around Equine and I use OE Align supplement daily. I run him on OE Composed as well.

TAKIN ON A STORM's style...

He's special--he has the run of a free-runner, but when he gets to the barrels he loves to turn. What I think is so special about him is that we have yet to put together that perfect run. There have been mistakes to clean up in our runs, and he's still clocking. That's how fast he is; he can make it up. I have made runs on him that I thought I was just cruising him through and he cuts the clock off. I have trained and rode some pretty cool horses, but Makin has all the tools to be that once in a life time horse. I am so excited for his future.

TRI STATE 2017... Shawn and Casey Varpness of SC Productions do an amazing job producing barrel races. I cannot say enough about the organization and hospitality that they offer to the barrel racers that come to their events. The Minnesota Equestrian Center is a beautiful facility and I will be running there later this fall in a couple more futurities. They sell out every barrel race they produce; I think that says it all.

GOALS... Of course, I have super high hopes and dreams for Makin. My goal for the end of the year is to end this year more solid than we started. I want to make quality lifetime horses. We will take each run one at a time! We will continue to go to futurities when they allow with our schedule. (My son Coy is in Junior High Rodeo, so that keeps me busy in that direction as well.) The next stop will be Verndale, MN for the JJ Classic the beginning of August. After coming off this win, I am excited for that weekend to come!

THANK YOU TO...

God, for blessing me with this amazing athlete and giving me the ability to train and ride him. I have always sold my "good" horses before I have another one going with the faith that if it's meant to be, God will send me another. He has never failed me. My husband Mark for helping me train and bring Makin to this level. I could never do it without him. My kids, cheering me on. Nothing better than having them run to the truck when I come in the

ANDREA UDAL

Coming into the Glacier Chaser Futurity my goal for the weekend was to have nice smooth runs and hopefully end up top 10 in the Futurity. Our first run was in the warm up jackpot as we haven't had the opportunity to make many runs on a standard pattern. She felt good, cruising through to be a 17.8. From there I wanted to build on that confidence. The first go of the futurity she stepped off first and struggled a bit on third. Coming into the second go of the futurity I called my daughter Colby Gilbert for some insight as she saw my first run in the futurity. Her only advice was to ride her to the backside and let her work. I did just that and Star felt outstanding running my own personal best time on a standard of 17.2 to be the fastest run of the weekend and win us the futurity. Coming out of the arena I was absolutely thrilled. Her run felt just as I had hoped for--smooth and efficient. Having had a lot of success in Canada in the past, it was a new goal for me to have success across the line as well. Star fulfilled that goal for me and I am so thankful for her.

Special thanks to Jana and Valee for all their hard work on the weekend and their great prizes.

PEPNICS FRENCH GAL is owned by Kristen Cote and has had a few great hands that have contributed to her success. Star was first started by cow horse trainer Taylor Douglas who put an outstanding handle on her. I admire him for the great work he does. She was then given to Krystal Grad to start on barrels. Krystal too did a great job starting her and getting her exposed. From the beginning Star was a natural at anything she did and took to the barrel racing game easily. Having seen Star in the past, I knew she had the potential to be a standout futurity horse. Matched with her natural ability and bold, confident demeanor, I believe she is one of those horses that will shine no matter what is thrown at her.

HURDLES, QUIRKS, SETBACKS... Since getting Star the beginning of May it has been a constant struggle to keep her soft in the ribcage.

As I said before Star is a very confident, bold mare. She naturally wants to be very elevated and fast in a turn. Keeping her soft, relaxed and correct in a turn is a goal we have in the practice pen. This in turn helps her to be more efficient and lay down the runs I know she is capable of. As for Star's personality, she does not have many quirks. She is an easy mare to haul and have around which makes my job very easy. The excitement of getting to have a hand in this mare's success is truly a blessing. She is one, I believe, to watch out for in the future and I am so thankful to my great friend Kristen for the opportunity.

I have had the opportunity to run many great horses in the last 5 years, all having success in the futurities. I do believe however, that Pepnics French Gal is special. She is one that loves her job and wants to work anywhere despite any obstacles she may be faced with. She is a very mature 5-year-old and I expect her to have a lot more success in the future.

The main goal I have when starting a horse is to instill the confidence in them to be great and give them the stepping-stones to work on their own. When working my colts I want a rate point where they relax and soften. I want them to ride up into the bridle and soften in the ribcage. I ensure not to cut off the backside of my turn and once at the backside I allow them to leave strong. I try to keep my program as easy as possible and it is also very important to me that others have success behind my training. The horses I have had the most success on are cow horses crossed with run. I want a natural rate in my horse as well as elevation. Star has crossed over easily into my program because of her great confirmation and natural ability. I contribute my success to all the great mentors that have influenced me such as Dave Elliot. I believe clinics are important to keep a person open minded and constantly growing.

A mentor I have had since childhood is the great Dave Elliot. I have had the opportunity to learn from Dave and that is why nothing goes in my horse's mouth other than a Dave Elliot bit. I feel the quality is second to none and I am so thankful for his guidance and knowledge. As for saddles, I recently came into contact with Clell and Joan Usher. Their saddles suit my style and allow me to always feel confident that I will be there to help my horses wherever needed. Actually, Joan sent me a new saddle up to Kalispell and that was the first weekend I had ever sat in it. I think that attests to the quality of their saddles as well. Needing something to take the edge off Star and keep her relaxed, I contacted Ivy Redfield about Oxy-Zen. Using this product for the first weekend and having so much success, I anticipate it will always be a product I have in my barn.

My goals have changed slightly. I would like to attend a few more futurities down in the states as well as some of the bigger races in Canada. My passion however, is teaching; so I will continue to host clinics as much as possible between the races I plan to attend.

Special thanks to my family--they are the key to my success.

IMA SPECIAL KINDAGUY

2011 Palomino Stallion

2017 FEE: $1,500

"We were extremely happy with this young stallion's first set of colts. They are fancy, fancy - just like him. We roped on SPECIAL this winter in Arizona and loved everything about the way this young stud worked. Very FAST, cowy and extremely smooth when he runs to catch a steer!"

A PROMISING YOUNG SIRE IN OUR PROGRAM! Sired by FRENCHMANS GUY and out of a AAA Granddaughter of THREE BARS!

This Guyz A KEEPER

2012 Palomino Stallion

2017 FEE: $1,500

"This young stallion has a lot of bone, substance and frame. He will mature to be a big horse but he is still very athletic. A naturally kind disposition. His 2nd Dam was one of THREE BARS best daughters - as close to Three Bars as you can get today! We think he will be a great addition to our stallion lineup."
