WHISKEY KISMET

She is very sweet to be around, easy going mare. She loves to run barrels and loves attention.

My wife (Casey Varpness) and I like to use a lot of different exercises using barrels and cones. We set them up to work our colts on to keep it fun and challenging for them. We don't actually work the pattern all the time. The days we work the pattern it's pretty much just slow work on the pattern to tune or fix things. I feel the trick to keep this mare so solid on the pattern is to know when to back off the pressure. She loves her job and I want her to continue to crave it.

I ride in a Tami Semas barrel saddle, run in a Sherri Cervi short shank bit (no tie down) and haul her in Back On Track Quick Wraps. We use Hay Chix Hay Bags—we like to keep a full bag of hay in front of her at all times in her stall and in the trailer. The slow feed bags control the amount of hay she consumes each day and keeps her busy. We use the Respond Systems Therapy Blanket before and after her runs which helps with muscle stiffness and any body soreness.

Love the blanket before and after her runs. We also use the Equi-Resp to help promote easier breathing and we put a Flair Nasal Strip on before each run. She is fed Triple Crown Feed & Exceed 6-Way from MVP. And we have her checked & adjusted by Back in the Game Animal Chiropractic, Dr. Hal Brown.

THE PREPARATION YOU TAKE WITH THIS FILLY JUST PRIOR TO A WEEKEND RUN?

Right now with going to barrel races every weekend I have been doing a lot of slow work on the pattern making sure I'm placing her feet around the barrel and not letting her crowd the barrel. I have to work on this mare's head set all the time.

The days I don't ride her I bit her up and put her on the Free Style Exerciser about 30 minutes to keep her legged up and not adding additional pressure and stress. The Free Style Exerciser is great for keeping them legged up and working on their head set. This piece of equipment has been so great to have for many different colts but for this filly I love it to help set her head.

ANYTHING SPECIAL OVER OTHER HORSES YOU HAVE RUN IN THE PAST?

She has a big heart; a very gritty mare. She loves her job. She has her own style in the turns that can be hard to ride. She is very setty and I have to really push her up in the hole and stay out of her way on the back side so she doesn't come back. I have to use a lot of leg and stay off her face—the more leg I use, the better with her.

CASSANDRA (owner) – HISTORY ON THIS FILLY?

I saw the horse for sale on Facebook. She was a 3 year old with 60 days of riding. I told Cassandra about the horse and she bought her. At the time Cassandra bought the mare, she was trotting a pattern. Cassandra kept the mare and trained her for the first 8 months before sending her to me to finish and compete on.

HORSES YOU HAVE EXCELLED ON IN THE PAST FEW YEARS...

I have been training and competing on barrel futurity horses for the past 18 years. I'm not like most trainers where I get sent 10-20 prospects and I get to pick the best 5 or 7 horses. My wife and I buy yearlings and 2 year olds or raise 1 or 2 colts a year and that is what we have that year to compete on. We have to make the best of what we have. We have been lucky to have been able to train and ride for some great customers that have sent us super nice horses to train. I'm a full-time power lineman so my job keeps me from being able to compete at a lot of the big futurities down south. We pick 2 or 3 of those big winter early spring futurities and go to them and a few big ones in the fall out west, but it's hard to be gone from the ranch and our jobs for weeks at a time.

We can only take in 2 or 3 outside horses a month due to our busy schedules. We have a waiting list; people want to get horses in for training right now. My wife and I both work full time jobs, we have boarding horses, our own horses to train, outside horses to ride, we hosted 6 of the biggest barrel races, futurities and slot races in the Midwest and this year hosted an American Qualifier. Keeping up with all the ranch work of fixing, cleaning pens, feeding, getting hay, etc. keeps us both very busy...plus a 4 year old son that wants to help with everything we do. We are lucky to have great friends to clean and do chores for us when we are gone on the weekends. We have some really nice colts coming up the next couple of years we are very excited about.

HOW DID YOUR RUNS GO...

My first go run was not the prettiest. Bruno felt very choppy but we ended up placing 7th and won almost $500. Bruno does seem to get stronger and more confident with each run so I expected him to feel better his second run and he did; in the 2nd round he won the round with 17.2 and won $2,252.00. While he still had so many mistakes in the run he also improved a lot. (I keep comparing his LG win run to his others and then I remember, that's a once in lifetime run so then I move on...lol). We had to come back that afternoon and run in the short go. I had no expectations on winning it; I just wanted to make another good run. I feel like our short go run was our worst run of the weekend but it ended up being the fastest with another 17.2 for the weekend. We won about $7200. Winning the futurity was very exciting! I've been coming for the last 10 years and it's always fun, I've met a lot of new friends here that I now call family.

JUST THE WAY YOU ARE... "Bruno" is by the late Roosters Fame out of our mare Streakin Scat Cat. Roosters Fame was a Dun DTF stallion owned by Jonee Crozier of WY (we were very sad to hear his passing). Bruno was broke by my brother late in his 2yr old year. From there I started him early spring on the barrels. He was very easy about everything; his only weakness was being very spooky. He was a very handy colt. Bruno is owned by my mom, Kathy and I. He's been very consistent and won money at every futurity; he won the LG Pro Classic and is currently the leading futurity horse for 2017--LTE 127k. Bruno is the sweetest horse that we own; he's a people pleaser and just wants to be in your pocket. Six days after one of the most exciting nights of my life, my husband and I were in a head on collision on our way to the 2nd go of the Patriot futurity; that for us was a huge setback, emotionally and physically. Bruno has so much heart and try--he loves running barrels. Horses like him just make you smile from ear to ear.

Life is not about winning slot races and world championships but a much bigger picture, and I'm very blessed that I get to do what I love along the journey. Dream Big!

TRAINING...

I would consider myself a simple trainer—I don't do anything fancy. I feel like each horse has to develop its own style and I just help guide it. I don't like to pick on colts. They are going to make mistakes somewhere and it's how they learn; having good experiences is how they become great horses. Not all horses are going to make 1D barrel horses and that's okay. Bruno didn't get much barrel work at all prior to the summer futurities. He was mostly at BVSS getting therapies and swam on aqua tread. I took him to one show and got him qualified for AQHA World Show. Other than that he really didn't see any barrels.

He definitely is a very special horse and I'm very thankful for him. He's helped a lot of my dreams come true. I think with his speed and athleticism it just works and it helps that he's such a people pleaser.

I run him in a Dave Elliott Spur Up 12 with bead MPC; and a Shiloh Contender saddle 7" gullet—it fits his mutton withers very well. Classic Equine polos on all four. I use a Sport Innovations blanket on him when I'm on the road and I don't have access to Magna Wave PEMF. Then he lives in a cold water spa at home—lol.

FUTURITY CREW...

The whole 5-State crew goes above and beyond to put the event on. The ground is always super fast; they've had some smokin' runs on standard pattern for these babies. Lana puts her whole heart into it and that's what sets it apart. I will tell anyone that's never been to the area, my favorite eating places (aside from training horses, I love eating) are Tallys blueberry pancakes and Kathmandu.

GOALS...

I'll go to Fizz bomb, Parker Wood, Ardmore Futurity in September and then WPRA finals, JB Quarter Horse, World Show, and then the BFA at the end of year. My goal for the rest of the year is to have Bruno win the leading barrel futurity horse.

I've had a lot of support this year and there have been so many people who have helped out with the horses in some way I don't think I can name them all but my mom, my husband and my friends. Tiffany Sternfels helped Bruno get back on the map. Casey has always done an impeccable job shoeing the horses which is most important to me. The people around you can have the biggest influences on your life and I have so many positive people in my circle. Life is not about winning slot races and world championships but a much bigger picture, and I'm very blessed that I get to do what I love along the journey. Dream Big!

I also want to thank Brazos Valley Equine Hospitals, Bloomer Trailers, P & P Trailer Sales, Oxygen, Cetyl M and Behind The Alley.

Lacey

SAMANTHA FLANNERY

HOW DID YOUR RUNS GO?

In the 1st round she had a pretty average run and was 19th in the round. I'd had a few issues with the first barrel, so I ran her in a different bit. The 2nd round, was kind of a hassle from the beginning. When we walked her out of the stall to saddle, we noticed a missing front shoe, called the farrier, told him we had 2 hours till we ran. By the time he showed up, we had an hour!! I was running other horses; when it was time to get on her, she wasn't back. They brought her over in time for me to warm up properly and I put on her original bit that I've used all year. She worked great!! Fastest time of the futurity. At this point, I knew I had fast time, but had NO IDEA I had won the futurity. When I walked her back out of the barn, she was lame and had lost another front shoe. I was flustered finding the farrier again, plus her shoe. I headed back into the arena to find the shoe and everyone was congratulating me. It was hard for me to believe that I had gone from 19th to 1st. In my flustered state, it took a long time to sink in.

LENAS LAST STREAKER is a daughter of A Streak Of Fling and out of Easy April Lena by Doc O Dynamite. Lena was bought as a 2 yr old on the Fulton Sale in 2014 by Jerry Adamson for his wife, Delores Adamson. They are both good friends of mine, and when I teased her about being a big spender, she said I better make room for her. I had Lena a couple months in her 3 yr old year and again a couple months her 4 yr old year. I call Lena "Precious" a lot. She does anything asked of her and stays humble. She has already had an amazing year; placing in the 1D at large shows from the very beginning. She has probably won around 10k.

HURDLES, QUIRKS, SETBACKS...

She's perfect!! She got sore through June which set us back, but we are mended and running good. She turns very square, huge stride and very fast. She aims to please and always gives 100%.

She was sore I think for awhile before she started letting it affect her, so then it was really bad and took awhile to bring her back around.

She took to the barrels fast, so isn't practiced much. She also does poles and enjoys cattle work. We have to keep her busy without the barrels; she just doesn't need practice work much--about once every two weeks I'll make some slow practice runs just keeping her proper. It takes about 5 minutes. She isn't much of a challenge. I've rode a couple horses like her; she aims to please and gives 100%. She is very easy to ride, stays square and doesn't throw you around.

I use a Loomis Gag bit, Ammerman saddle, and a Cutter Collection pad. She gets Equivibed several times a week and BOT at shows.

DASH AND DANCE...

This is one of my absolute favorite shows. The location is beautiful. It's a family ran futurity. The arena is small, slightly straight to the first barrel and the ground is good and safe. This futurity is a MUST!!

GOALS...

Our futurity schedule is Cornhusker, Triangle Cross, Fizz Bomb, Parker-Wood, Grid Iron and Hawki. Then she will go to the Adamson's granddaughter, Sydney Adamson and help her finish out her high school career and then on to college.

I am thankful for....my interns the last 3 years, that have all fallen in love with her. My family, who also kind of likes her and of course the Adamson's for giving me this opportunity to ride this awesome mare!!
